

Evaluation report title	Year	Responsible Office	Eval. report type	Region	Period covered	Recom. title	Recommendation text	Recom. status	Priority (high, medium)	Action point title	Action point text (CO actions)	Action point due date (MM/DD/YYYY)
Kyrgyzstan CPE (2018-22)	2021	Kyrgyzstan CO	CPE	EECA	2018-2021	Strategic	Rec.1: The CO should focus on development of a new CPD that is aligned with the new UNFPA Strategic Plan 2022-2025 and that provide strategic directions to achieve universal access to SRH, realize reproductive rights for all and accelerate implementation of the ICPD Programme of Action and focuses on accelerating the achievements of three transformative results leading to 2030 Agenda.	Accepted	High	1.1. CPD design	1.1. New CPD (2023-2027) developed in line with the CCA/UNSDCF/UNFPA SP and approved by the Executive Board (Sept 2022 or Jan 2023 session)	31/1/2023
Kyrgyzstan CPE (2018-22)	2021	Kyrgyzstan CO	CPE	EECA	2018-2021	Strategic	Rec.2: UNFPA CO should expand predictable and flexible funding modalities and explore new funding resources by better integrating its components and having a programme specialist/ coordinator carrying out a resource mobilization function. At the same time, the CO should revise its strategy and tactics in exploring different sources of funds (both traditional donor funding and new ones), including 'out-of-box' thinking and expanding partnerships.	Accepted	Medium	2.1. Resource mobilization and partnerships	2.1. The Resource Mobilization and Partnership Plan for the new CPD will include different types of partnerships. The staff will continue expanding and exploring partnership opportunities for all thematic program components. The CO will map the partnerships and the HR plan will be aligned to ensure relevant inclusion of the Resource Mobilization functions	15/12/2022
Kyrgyzstan CPE (2018-22)	2021	Kyrgyzstan CO	CPE	EECA	2018-2021	Strategic	Rec.3: UNFPA should strengthen its human resources and technical capacity, including but not limited to review of CO structure and increase of staff capacities, in order to advance country achievements in accessing SRH rights and the three transformative results and remain relevant to cover the emerging national development priorities.	Accepted	High	3.1. Human resources	3.1. The office will develop a new HR plan aligned to the new CPD needs.	15/12/2022
Kyrgyzstan CPE (2018-22)	2021	Kyrgyzstan CO	CPE	EECA	2018-2021	Strategic	Rec.4: UNFPA CO in Kyrgyzstan has to promote awareness building on its mandate and uniqueness among public, especially at local level, development actors and donors, private sector and religious community at national and regional levels. And expanding partnerships for impact.	Accepted	Medium	4.1. Communication and visibility	4.1. The Communication and Advocacy Plan for the new CPD will have a broader scope in terms of types of partnerships and a comprehensive Plan to increase UNFPA visibility and outreach	15/12/2022
Kyrgyzstan CPE (2018-22)	2021	Kyrgyzstan CO	CPE	EECA	2018-2021	Programme	Rec. 5: UNFPA should strengthen national capacity across all programme areas, including institutional, advocacy, policy as well as use of data for SRH, FP, GBV, A&Y, and population dynamics.	Accepted	High	5.1 Effective programme implementation	5.1. The new CPD will have a stronger emphasis on capacity building of key counterparts at government and implementing partners' levels in the recommended areas 5.2. The new CPD will include data analysis and dissemination of key surveys (including the Census) in order to promote the formulation of evidence-based policies in the different thematic areas	31/12/2023
Kyrgyzstan CPE (2018-22)	2021	Kyrgyzstan CO	CPE	EECA	2018-2021	Programme	Rec.6: UNFPA should continue its lead work in the Adolescent & Youth programme area, focusing on: i) implementation of the Concept of Youth Policy ii) continuing integration of Healthy Life Style course into the madrasah and vocational schools throughout the country; iii) expanding UNFPA work with youth and youth groups, especially at local level, through the UN YTG work, civic education, youth platforms, youth participation in humanitarian settings, youth and volunteering, online platforms and informal communication between government, religious leaders and civil society and groups.	Accepted	Medium	6.1. Adolescent and youth	6.1. New CPD will have a stronger focus on adolescents and youth (mainstreamed across the different program components) 6.2. CO will undertake specific actions and dedicate resources to implement the Youth Policy, support youth initiatives and innovative collaborations to foster their meaningful participation in healthy transition (healthy lifestyle and SRH) and education through formal education institutions including madrasahs both at the local and national levels	31/12/2023

Kyrgyzstan CPE (2018-22)	2021	Kyrgyzstan CO	CPE	EECA	2018-2021	Programme	Rec.7: UNFPA should strengthen the capacity of critical actors and partnership in humanitarian/emergency preparedness and response area at national and local levels by enhancing existing interventions and exploring new approaches for timely, integrated, gender-transformative and peace-responsive activities and provision of life-saving RH/GBV supplies, dignity kits, PPEs, etc. as well as increase accessibility to data and the use of innovative methods in the provision of services in emergencies.	Accepted	High	7.1. Peace development continuum and Humanitarian including preparedness and response	7.1. CO will undertake specific actions and dedicate resources to implement specific peace-responsive interventions with a focus on gender transformative activities and provision of life-saving supplies. 7.2. The new CPD will include a strong focus on data collection and availability for preparedness and humanitarian response 7.3. The new CPD will have clear deliverables and apply new approaches on supporting humanitarian preparedness/response and institutionalization of MHPSS, MSR to GBV in emergency, SRH in emergency	31/12/2023
--------------------------	------	---------------	-----	------	-----------	-----------	---	----------	------	---	--	------------