

Indonesia County Programme Evaluation (2015-2022)	2019	www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	Indonesia CO	County Programme Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2019-2019					1,5/2015	5/30/2019	1 Strategic Focus	2. Given the working environment under UNDECAF CPFR focus to be more integrated programming approach across development programme components – including Humanitarian Interventions as well as action agencies, if feasible, identify and include theories of change (TOC) that encompasses the entire results chain, ensuring adequate skills and capacity of staff that participate in the formulation of the results framework. Establish cross functional teams in the country office to avoid vertical project planning and management. UNWFP is working on the humanitarian development agenda to achieve three aims and the revised TOC by the end of 2020. SOCs are integrated and individual activities then will lead to more holistic, integrated approach that requires a systems thinking as opposed to silos thinking.	Accused	Indonesia CO	High	2.1 Adapting an integrated programming approach for CPFR	2.1.4 UNWFP CO and CC in the Country Office Development Plan will assist the role of Programme Coordinating Unit (PCU) and support best available or early warning system tools in the design/programming process including EAC data to better assess and facilitate the programme reach achievement in a timely and cost-effective manner.					www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	1/30/2021	100%							www.unwfp.org	www.unwfp.org
Indonesia County Programme Evaluation (2015-2022)	2019	www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	Indonesia CO	County Programme Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2019-2019					1,5/2015	5/30/2019	1 Strategic Focus	2. Given the working environment under UNDECAF CPFR focus to be more integrated programming approach across development programme components – including Humanitarian Interventions as well as action agencies, if feasible, identify and include theories of change (TOC) that encompasses the entire results chain, ensuring adequate skills and capacity of staff that participate in the formulation of the results framework. Establish cross functional teams in the country office to avoid vertical project planning and management. UNWFP is working on the humanitarian development agenda to achieve three aims and the revised TOC by the end of 2020. SOCs are integrated and individual activities then will lead to more holistic, integrated approach that requires a systems thinking as opposed to silos thinking.	Accused	Indonesia CO	High	2.1 Adapting an integrated programming approach for CPFR	2.1.5 The CO will explore participatory models with other UN agencies where opportunities arise for UNWFP to maximize comparable strengths and provide resources in the context of UNCT “collaborative support. UNWFP CO will continue to pilot programmes on maternal health, universal health coverage, comprehensive HIV prevention, youth justice development, protection cluster response to gender-based violence and harmful practices and also for SOCs, also provided through UNWFP, UNICEF, UNDP, UNFPA, UN Women, UNHCR, Public Law Justice and the World Bank.					www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	1/30/2021	100%							www.unwfp.org	www.unwfp.org
Indonesia County Programme Evaluation (2015-2022)	2019	www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	Indonesia CO	County Programme Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2019-2019					1,5/2015	5/30/2019	1 Strategic Focus	2. Given the working environment under UNDECAF CPFR focus to be more integrated programming approach across development programme components – including Humanitarian Interventions as well as action agencies, if feasible, identify and include theories of change (TOC) that encompasses the entire results chain, ensuring adequate skills and capacity of staff that participate in the formulation of the results framework. Establish cross functional teams in the country office to avoid vertical project planning and management. UNWFP is working on the humanitarian development agenda to achieve three aims and the revised TOC by the end of 2020. SOCs are integrated and individual activities then will lead to more holistic, integrated approach that requires a systems thinking as opposed to silos thinking.	Accused	Indonesia CO	High	2.1 Adapting an integrated programming approach for CPFR	2.1.6 UNWFP will develop cross-functional teams to gain innovation and partnerships. In-house coordinator across functional areas. Humanitarian response to generate a more collaborative collaborative and an environment.					www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	1/30/2021	100%							www.unwfp.org	www.unwfp.org
Indonesia County Programme Evaluation (2015-2022)	2019	www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	Indonesia CO	County Programme Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2019-2019					1,5/2015	5/30/2019	1 Strategic Focus	UNWFP CO to consider development and implementation of an advocacy strategy upon receiving the aid envisaged with a starting and evaluation framework including for pilot projects.	Accused	Indonesia CO	High	1.1 Establish strategy and monitoring plan activities in a range where the projects are ready for scaling up if evidence are clearly showing up, with incentives for data collection and quality assurance mechanisms	1.1.1 Establish clear connections between programme objectives and indicators related and identify all essential programme monitoring system. To this end, the UN WFP, on-going planning, monitoring and reporting platform – will be the platform used to analyze and share resources. This will involve a number of programme activities and will include the CO development system’s ability to improve transparency and accountability. Secondly, UNWFP will leverage up-to-date data collection and information through SmartCare (Smart Care) and other technologies and the related data and reporting applications to enhance staff to knowledge about programme and allowing opportunities to identify and address challenges for proposed programme CPFR. In addition, the results of advocacy strategy, as an integral part of the revised CPFR ready framework, will be measured using joint monitoring meetings held to discuss measure results of advocacy work. This will require additional approaches e.g. conducting analysis, case studies, media analysis and coverage, social media analysis etc.					www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	1/30/2021	100%						www.unwfp.org	www.unwfp.org
Indonesia County Programme Evaluation (2015-2022)	2019	www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	Indonesia CO	County Programme Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2019-2019					1,5/2015	5/30/2019	1 Strategic Focus	UNWFP CO to consider development and implementation of an advocacy strategy upon receiving the aid envisaged with a starting and evaluation framework including for pilot projects.	Accused	Indonesia CO	High	2.7 Promote data-driven advocacy and communication including having an advocacy strategy UNWFP is currently in form of proposal.	2.2 UNWFP CO will develop evidence-based advocacy and communication strategy for CPFR being the essential focus through various, including on these areas. UNWFP will also explore the capacity of the UNWFP CO advocacy and communication, including on entry point.					www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	1/30/2021	100%							www.unwfp.org	www.unwfp.org
Indonesia County Programme Evaluation (2015-2022)	2019	www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	Indonesia CO	County Programme Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2019-2019					1,5/2015	5/30/2019	1 Strategic Focus	UNWFP is selected partner in a range of strategic, innovative and approved partners to advance the priorities identified in the UN Humanitarian Development Cooperation Framework (UNHDCF) to have their transformed and systems change based sustainable development.	Accused	Indonesia CO	Medium	1. Humanitarian strategy, strategic partnerships and joint work plans for UNDECAF	1.1.1 The CO will formulate and submit to the Executive Board’s Resolutions Distribution Plan by CPFR to effectively diversified partner/leading lines which include: 1) National institutions and bilateral partners, 2) international fundations and organizations, 3) national for scaling through the National Government if needed, 4) national partners through the private sector, 5) General Partnership through high net worth individuals, and 6) joint work plans for collaborative support in UNHDCF. The CPFR Results strategy will be treated as part of a broader Strategic Framework, Emergency, South-South Cooperation that the specific strategy, UNWFP’s strategic plans and key modes of engagement under CPFR, the opportunities for strategic partnerships and South-South Cooperation initiatives that can be explored and the role each UNWFP will play in the Program’s Operations and to the specific ways leads to be a key developing center for proposals, effective communication, efficient use of resources) to pursue these partnerships and funding opportunities.					www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	1/30/2021	100%							www.unwfp.org	www.unwfp.org
Indonesia County Programme Evaluation (2015-2022)	2019	www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	Indonesia CO	County Programme Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2019-2019					1,5/2015	5/30/2019	1 Strategic Focus	UNWFP is selected partner in a range of strategic, innovative and approved partners to advance the priorities identified in the UN Humanitarian Development Cooperation Framework (UNHDCF) to have their transformed and systems change based sustainable development.	Accused	Indonesia CO	High	1.2 Strengthening UNWFP partner relations locally and one ability for of respective Offices in reporting to UNWFP, GBV, ADRN and joint engagement during humanitarian responses	1.1.1 UNWFP CO will conduct a number of possible building activities: strengthen partner relations through joint activities for all respective Offices in reporting to UNWFP, GBV, ADRN and joint engagement of humanitarian activities, data management and collection during humanitarian responses. Results will be reported to the UNWFP CO and the CPFR joint programming area that will have to be aligned with the UNWFP Development Agenda and Gender Framework.					www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	1/30/2021	100%							www.unwfp.org	www.unwfp.org
Indonesia County Programme Evaluation (2015-2022)	2019	www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	Indonesia CO	County Programme Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2019-2019					1,5/2015	5/30/2019	1 Strategic Focus	UNWFP is selected partner in a range of strategic, innovative and approved partners to advance the priorities identified in the UN Humanitarian Development Cooperation Framework (UNHDCF) to have their transformed and systems change based sustainable development.	Accused	Indonesia CO	High	1.2 Strengthening partnership in humanitarian context	1.2.1 Develop a roster of joint partners working in social and reproductive health and GBV and develop a list that aim to ensure their capacity building as a strategy for improving “visibility”. Explore the possibility of joint United Nations programming to build the area of work which includes collaboration with UNICEF or Unwomen, national capacity and coordination in local government and local civil society organizations to identify and operationalize UNWFP pilot/development in line with the Gender Framework for Disaster Risk Reduction, including approval of operational activities.					www.sustainableindonesia.org/indonesia-county-programme-evaluation-2015-2022	1/30/2021	100%							www.unwfp.org	www.unwfp.org

Adams County Program Evaluation (2016-2022)	2016	adamscountycolorado.gov	Adams CO	County Program Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2016-2019	11/20/15	5/30/2016	1 Strategic Focus	5. In the humanization control, the programmatic impact to be strengthened. Service providers in Social and Reproductive Health, Gender equality, adolescents and youth should be part of the programmatic plan. Community capacity building should be part of a Communication and maternal health. Emphasis on bridging the humanization-development divide. Include interventions in support of strengthening the capacity of local service providers and national actors to identify and deal with risks, vulnerabilities and their underlying causes. UNFPA need to have a strong communication strategy in humanization settings	Accomplished	Adams CO	High	5.1 Policy and strategic coordination between development and humanization sectors to improve	5.1 The CO will develop policy and strategic coordination between development and humanization sectors in which details issues of strategic allocation and their activities. In addition, the CO will lead the COV and UNFPA coordination role for humanization and development work and strengthen the government leadership by UNFPA and GBV coordinators, and provide inputs and technical assistance for UNFPA, UNICEF and UNFPA (UNICEF) to carry out humanization response (UNICEF Humanitarian and Social Protection Report, Addressing the National Protection Cluster and Gender and GBV Integration into the programmatic and response plans, COV and UNFPA (UNICEF) response strategy for the Ministry of Health (MOH) and Gender of Women's empowerment and collaboration (MOCWCP)	adamscountycolorado.gov	12/30/2022	100%	Adams CO	adamscountycolorado.gov	adamscountycolorado.gov
Adams County Program Evaluation (2016-2022)	2016	adamscountycolorado.gov	Adams CO	County Program Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2016-2019	11/20/15	5/30/2016	1 Strategic Focus	5. In the humanization control, the programmatic impact to be strengthened. Service providers in Social and Reproductive Health, Gender equality, adolescents and youth should be part of the programmatic plan. Community capacity building should be part of a Communication and maternal health. Emphasis on bridging the humanization-development divide. Include interventions in support of strengthening the capacity of local service providers and national actors to identify and deal with risks, vulnerabilities and their underlying causes. UNFPA need to have a strong communication strategy in humanization settings	Accomplished	Adams CO	High	5.1 Ensuring evidence and develop communication strategy for the programmatic impact to be strengthened. This includes capacity building of local actors (service providers, community)	5.1.1 Ensure the inclusion of humanization strategy in the UNFPA communication strategy plans, availability of UNFPA video key messages for programmatic, response and recovery, and identification of local partners (especially women-led NGOs, NGOs or people with disability) and align, developed by communication engagement strategy for service, stake and social investment using humanization responses to ensure meaningful engagement with target beneficiaries (not vulnerable group)	adamscountycolorado.gov	6/30/2022	100%	Adams CO	adamscountycolorado.gov	adamscountycolorado.gov
Adams County Program Evaluation (2016-2022)	2016	adamscountycolorado.gov	Adams CO	County Program Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2016-2019	11/20/15	5/30/2016	1 Strategic Focus	5. In the humanization control, the programmatic impact to be strengthened. Service providers in Social and Reproductive Health, Gender equality, adolescents and youth should be part of the programmatic plan. Community capacity building should be part of a Communication and maternal health. Emphasis on bridging the humanization-development divide. Include interventions in support of strengthening the capacity of local service providers and national actors to identify and deal with risks, vulnerabilities and their underlying causes. UNFPA need to have a strong communication strategy in humanization settings	Accomplished	Adams CO	High	5.1 Strengthening the capacity of local service providers and national actors to identify and deal with risks, vulnerabilities and their underlying causes	5.1.1 The CO will allocate resources to capacity building in the COV. The capacity building are designed to capacity development of local service providers and community members (especially women) through the National Protection Cluster (NPC) and Gender and GBV Integration into the programmatic and response plans, COV and UNFPA (UNICEF) response strategy for the Ministry of Health (MOH) and Gender of Women's empowerment and collaboration (MOCWCP), other UN Agencies such as UNICEF, FAO, WFP, UN Women, UNICEF (UNICEF) and UNFPA (UNICEF). The CO will ensure the inclusion of humanization strategy in the UNFPA communication strategy plans, availability of UNFPA video key messages for programmatic, response and recovery, and identification of local partners (especially women-led NGOs, NGOs or people with disability) and align, developed by communication engagement strategy for service, stake and social investment using humanization responses to ensure meaningful engagement with target beneficiaries (not vulnerable group)	adamscountycolorado.gov	12/30/2022	100%	Adams CO	adamscountycolorado.gov	adamscountycolorado.gov
Adams County Program Evaluation (2016-2022)	2016	adamscountycolorado.gov	Adams CO	County Program Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2016-2019	11/20/15	5/30/2016	1 Strategic Focus	5. In the humanization control, the programmatic impact to be strengthened. Service providers in Social and Reproductive Health, Gender equality, adolescents and youth should be part of the programmatic plan. Community capacity building should be part of a Communication and maternal health. Emphasis on bridging the humanization-development divide. Include interventions in support of strengthening the capacity of local service providers and national actors to identify and deal with risks, vulnerabilities and their underlying causes. UNFPA need to have a strong communication strategy in humanization settings	Accomplished	Adams CO	High	5.1 Strengthening the capacity of local service providers and national actors to identify and deal with risks, vulnerabilities and their underlying causes	5.1.1 Incorporate in the UNFPA COV strategy the National Protection Cluster (NPC) and Gender and GBV Integration into the programmatic and response plans, COV and UNFPA (UNICEF) response strategy for the Ministry of Health (MOH) and Gender of Women's empowerment and collaboration (MOCWCP), other UN Agencies such as UNICEF, FAO, WFP, UN Women, UNICEF (UNICEF) and UNFPA (UNICEF). The CO will ensure the inclusion of humanization strategy in the UNFPA communication strategy plans, availability of UNFPA video key messages for programmatic, response and recovery, and identification of local partners (especially women-led NGOs, NGOs or people with disability) and align, developed by communication engagement strategy for service, stake and social investment using humanization responses to ensure meaningful engagement with target beneficiaries (not vulnerable group)	adamscountycolorado.gov	12/30/2022	100%	Adams CO	adamscountycolorado.gov	adamscountycolorado.gov
Adams County Program Evaluation (2016-2022)	2016	adamscountycolorado.gov	Adams CO	County Program Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2016-2019	11/20/15	5/30/2016	1 Strategic Focus	5. In the humanization control, the programmatic impact to be strengthened. Service providers in Social and Reproductive Health, Gender equality, adolescents and youth should be part of the programmatic plan. Community capacity building should be part of a Communication and maternal health. Emphasis on bridging the humanization-development divide. Include interventions in support of strengthening the capacity of local service providers and national actors to identify and deal with risks, vulnerabilities and their underlying causes. UNFPA need to have a strong communication strategy in humanization settings	Accomplished	Adams CO	High	5.1 Incorporate in the UNFPA COV strategy the National Protection Cluster (NPC) and Gender and GBV Integration into the programmatic and response plans, COV and UNFPA (UNICEF) response strategy for the Ministry of Health (MOH) and Gender of Women's empowerment and collaboration (MOCWCP), other UN Agencies such as UNICEF, FAO, WFP, UN Women, UNICEF (UNICEF) and UNFPA (UNICEF). The CO will ensure the inclusion of humanization strategy in the UNFPA communication strategy plans, availability of UNFPA video key messages for programmatic, response and recovery, and identification of local partners (especially women-led NGOs, NGOs or people with disability) and align, developed by communication engagement strategy for service, stake and social investment using humanization responses to ensure meaningful engagement with target beneficiaries (not vulnerable group)	5.1.1 Incorporate in the UNFPA COV strategy the National Protection Cluster (NPC) and Gender and GBV Integration into the programmatic and response plans, COV and UNFPA (UNICEF) response strategy for the Ministry of Health (MOH) and Gender of Women's empowerment and collaboration (MOCWCP), other UN Agencies such as UNICEF, FAO, WFP, UN Women, UNICEF (UNICEF) and UNFPA (UNICEF). The CO will ensure the inclusion of humanization strategy in the UNFPA communication strategy plans, availability of UNFPA video key messages for programmatic, response and recovery, and identification of local partners (especially women-led NGOs, NGOs or people with disability) and align, developed by communication engagement strategy for service, stake and social investment using humanization responses to ensure meaningful engagement with target beneficiaries (not vulnerable group)	adamscountycolorado.gov	12/30/2021	100%	Adams CO	adamscountycolorado.gov	adamscountycolorado.gov
Adams County Program Evaluation (2016-2022)	2016	adamscountycolorado.gov	Adams CO	County Program Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2016-2020	11/20/15	5/30/2016	2 Programmatic Focus	6. In the UNFPA, UNFPA Programs should continue to be aligned with national priorities and international commitments related to maternal health and family planning, as elaborated in National Medium Development Plan (JDF 2016-2024), SDG, COV-20, and in addressing the issues of advocacy and legislative levels that can potentially remove major barriers to achieving the UNFPA goals, as well as to bridge with other relevant programmes.	Accomplished	Adams CO	High	6.1 Strengthening the role in family planning and reproductive rights	6.1.1 Incorporate in the UNFPA COV strategy the National Protection Cluster (NPC) and Gender and GBV Integration into the programmatic and response plans, COV and UNFPA (UNICEF) response strategy for the Ministry of Health (MOH) and Gender of Women's empowerment and collaboration (MOCWCP), other UN Agencies such as UNICEF, FAO, WFP, UN Women, UNICEF (UNICEF) and UNFPA (UNICEF). The CO will ensure the inclusion of humanization strategy in the UNFPA communication strategy plans, availability of UNFPA video key messages for programmatic, response and recovery, and identification of local partners (especially women-led NGOs, NGOs or people with disability) and align, developed by communication engagement strategy for service, stake and social investment using humanization responses to ensure meaningful engagement with target beneficiaries (not vulnerable group)	adamscountycolorado.gov	6/30/2022	100%	Adams CO	adamscountycolorado.gov	adamscountycolorado.gov
Adams County Program Evaluation (2016-2022)	2016	adamscountycolorado.gov	Adams CO	County Program Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2016-2020	11/20/15	5/30/2016	2 Programmatic Focus	6. In the UNFPA, UNFPA Programs should continue to be aligned with national priorities and international commitments related to maternal health and family planning, as elaborated in National Medium Development Plan (JDF 2016-2024), SDG, COV-20, and in addressing the issues of advocacy and legislative levels that can potentially remove major barriers to achieving the UNFPA goals, as well as to bridge with other relevant programmes.	Accomplished	Adams CO	High	6.1 Addressing the role in advocacy and legislative levels that can potentially remove major barriers	6.1.1 High level increases through the following activities: 1) Increase legal and regulatory barriers by supporting human rights principles of non-discrimination, parity and equality; 2) Conduct participatory advocacy process involving multi-stakeholders, including the legislature.	adamscountycolorado.gov	12/30/2022	100%	Adams CO	adamscountycolorado.gov	adamscountycolorado.gov
Adams County Program Evaluation (2016-2022)	2016	adamscountycolorado.gov	Adams CO	County Program Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2016-2020	11/20/15	5/30/2016	2 Programmatic Focus	7. Make use of the available data (UNFPA & other KB products) from gender analysis and identify for implementation of gender equality jointly with other relevant UN Agencies coordinated through UN Gender Thematic Working Group. This includes integrating gender engagement strategy across the UNFPA's programming, going beyond the COV. Currently, a multi-stakeholder reference group is being facilitated by UNFPA as an engagement strategy under COV and this may be taken to UNICEF or UNICEF for sustainability.	Accomplished	Adams CO	High	7.1 Develop strategic interventions to gender issues	7.1.1 Incorporate in the UNFPA COV strategy the National Protection Cluster (NPC) and Gender and GBV Integration into the programmatic and response plans, COV and UNFPA (UNICEF) response strategy for the Ministry of Health (MOH) and Gender of Women's empowerment and collaboration (MOCWCP), other UN Agencies such as UNICEF, FAO, WFP, UN Women, UNICEF (UNICEF) and UNFPA (UNICEF). The CO will ensure the inclusion of humanization strategy in the UNFPA communication strategy plans, availability of UNFPA video key messages for programmatic, response and recovery, and identification of local partners (especially women-led NGOs, NGOs or people with disability) and align, developed by communication engagement strategy for service, stake and social investment using humanization responses to ensure meaningful engagement with target beneficiaries (not vulnerable group)	adamscountycolorado.gov	12/30/2022	100%	Adams CO	adamscountycolorado.gov	adamscountycolorado.gov
Adams County Program Evaluation (2016-2022)	2016	adamscountycolorado.gov	Adams CO	County Program Evaluator (CPE)	APR	2016-2020	11/20/15	5/30/2016	2 Programmatic Focus	7. Make use of the available data (UNFPA & other KB products) from gender analysis and identify for implementation of gender equality jointly with other relevant UN Agencies coordinated through UN Gender Thematic Working Group. This includes integrating gender engagement strategy across the UNFPA's programming, going beyond the COV. Currently, a multi-stakeholder reference group is being facilitated by UNFPA as an engagement strategy under COV and this may be taken to UNICEF or UNICEF for sustainability.	Accomplished	Adams CO	High	7.2 Make use of the available data to advocate for advancement of gender equality	7.2.1 Incorporate in the UNFPA COV strategy the National Protection Cluster (NPC) and Gender and GBV Integration into the programmatic and response plans, COV and UNFPA (UNICEF) response strategy for the Ministry of Health (MOH) and Gender of Women's empowerment and collaboration (MOCWCP), other UN Agencies such as UNICEF, FAO, WFP, UN Women, UNICEF (UNICEF) and UNFPA (UNICEF). The CO will ensure the inclusion of humanization strategy in the UNFPA communication strategy plans, availability of UNFPA video key messages for programmatic, response and recovery, and identification of local partners (especially women-led NGOs, NGOs or people with disability) and align, developed by communication engagement strategy for service, stake and social investment using humanization responses to ensure meaningful engagement with target beneficiaries (not vulnerable group)	adamscountycolorado.gov	12/30/2022	100%	Adams CO	adamscountycolorado.gov	adamscountycolorado.gov

