

OUR PARTNERSHIP

Allies amid adversity

In 2023, the United States enabled UNFPA to provide urgently needed supplies and care in countries such as Afghanistan, Haiti, Sudan, Ukraine and some neighboring countries. As the primary humanitarian contributor to UNFPA, the United States provides critical staff capacity-building and support to women and girls enduring conflict worldwide, demonstrating its commitment to promoting resilience in crisis-affected communities.

A partner in times of crisis

As a top core contributor, the United States plays an important role in enabling UNFPA to provide expertise in responding to gender-based violence in crisis-affected communities, enhance global standards for accountability, and ensure the provision of essential sexual and reproductive health services.

Continued commitment for transformative results

The United States of America maintains its position as UNFPA's primary government contributor, playing a vital role in supporting UNFPA's efforts to achieve three transformative results: addressing unmet need for contraception, preventing maternal deaths, and combating gender-based violence and harmful practices.

ABOUT UNFPA

UNFPA is the United Nations sexual and reproductive health agency. Our mission is to deliver a world where every pregnancy is wanted, every childbirth is safe and every young person's potential is fulfilled.

All UNFPA funding is voluntary – we rely on partners and donors like you to champion our mission and support our programmes!

Our three transformative results:

end preventable maternal deaths

end the unmet need for family planning

end gender-based violence and all harmful practices
